RENTAL APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

All persons over the age of 18 that will be occupying the residence must complete the rental application. All persons over the age of 18 that will be occupying the residence must supply a copy of photo I.D. There is 1 main “applicant” and everyone else is considered a “co-applicant”. Credit report, criminal background check and eviction reports will be run for all applicants and co-applicants.

The application must be either initialed or signed by all parties on pages where indicated. All parties must complete the Employment Verification and the Residential Verification Forms. These must be signed by the Employer and Landlord and include all the information requested on the form. These can be faxed directly by the Employer and Landlord or submitted with the application. We will call Employers and Landlords to verify the information.

We process applications on a “first-received, first-served” basis. An application is not considered received until all pages of the application, including the Employment Verification and Residential Verification Forms, have been completed and submitted our office and the application fee has been paid. Please include copies of Driver’s Licenses with completed application.

APPLICATION FEES

The application fee is $80.00 per person over the age of 18. This is due when the application is submitted. Any or all associated fees for using online payment services are non-refundable.

PROPERTY CONDITION - SPECIAL TERMS

All properties are rented in “as is” condition. If there are special terms that you would like the owner to consider please indicate these on the first page of the application in the section titled “Special Terms”. We will contact the owner to get authorization. If the special terms are denied, your application fee and application will be returned. If an agreement is reached, the application fee will be deposited and the application will be processed. All changes to property from time of viewing MUST be written in the special terms section of this application.

APPROVAL/DENIAL

Once the application, employment verification, residential verification and fee have been received by Absolute Realty Management Group the approval process begins. It usually takes approximately 48 hours and we will notify applicants with the decision.

SECURITY DEPOSITS

In addition to all security deposits there will be a $140 non-refundable administrative fee. If pets are allowed and approved by the owner, an additional $300 non-refundable pet fee will be charged per approved pet. Security deposits must be in the form of a cashier’s check, bank check or money order.

If applicant is approved by landlord and/or management and the lease is entered into and possession of the property is taken the “HOLD DEPOSIT” shall be applied toward the security/damage deposit. If applicant is approved, but fails to enter into the lease within 3 days of verbal and/or written approval and/or take possession after the lease is signing, the FULL “HOLD DEPOSIT” shall be forfeited to landlord or management in addition to any penalties as provided in the lease if the lease has been signed by the applicant. The “HOLD DEPOSIT” shall be refunded only if the applicant has not been approved. Keys will be furnished only after lease and other rental documents have been properly executed by all parties and only after applicable rentals and security deposits have been paid. This application is preliminary only, in no way implies a particular rental unit shall be available and in no way obligates landlord or management to execute a lease or deliver possession of the proposed premises.

MOVE-IN APPOINTMENTS

Move-in appointments are scheduled during regular business hours - Monday thru Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. At the discretion of Absolute Realty Management Group an appointment may be scheduled outside of normal business hours but will be subject to a $200 surcharge.

FCRA Summary of Rights

A Summary of Your Rights – Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) is designed to promote accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of every “consumer reporting agency” (CRA). Most CRA’s are credit bureaus that gather and sell information about you – such as if you pay your bills on time or have filed bankruptcy – to creditors, employers, landlords, and other businesses. You can find the complete text of the FCRA, 15 U.S.C. §§1681-1681u, by visiting www.ftc.gov. The FCRA gives you specific rights as outline below. You may have additional rights under state law. You may contact a state or local consumer protection agency or a state attorney general to learn those rights.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses information from a CRA to take action against you – such as denying an application for credit, insurance, or employment – must tell you, and give you the name, address, and phone number of the CRA that provided the consumer report.
- You can find out what is in your file. At your request, a CRA must give you the information in your file, and a list of everyone who has requested it recently. There is no charge for the report if a person has taken action against you because of information supplied by the CRA, if you request the report within 60 days of receiving notice of the action. You also are entitled to one free report every twelve months upon request if you certify (1) you are unemployed and plan to seek employment within 60 days, (2) you are on welfare, or (3) your report is inaccurate due to fraud. Otherwise, a CRA may charge you up to eight dollars.
- You can dispute inaccurate information with the CRA. If you tell a CRA that your file contains inaccurate information, the CRA must investigate the items (usually within 30 days) by presenting to its information source all relevant evidence you submit, unless your dispute is frivolous. The source must review your evidence and report its findings to the CRA. (The source also must advise national CRA’s – to which it has provided the data – of any error.) The CRA must give you a written report of the investigation and a copy of your report if the investigation results in any change. If the CRA’s investigation does not resolve the dispute, you may add a brief statement to your file. The CRA must normally include a summary of your statement in the future reports. If an item is deleted or a dispute statement is filed you may ask that anyone who has recently received your report be notified of the change.
- Inaccurate information must be corrected or deleted. A CRA must remove or correct inaccurate or unverified information from its files, usually within 30 days after you dispute it. However, the CRA is not required to remove accurate data from your file unless it is outdated (as described below) or cannot be verified. If your dispute results in any change to your report, the CRA cannot reinsert into your file a disputed item unless the information source verifies its accuracy and completeness. In addition, the CRA must give you a written notice telling you it has reinserted the item. The notice must include the name, address and phone number of the information source.
- You can dispute inaccurate items and the source of the information. If you tell anyone – such as a creditor who reports to the CRA – that you dispute an item, they may not then report the information to a CRA without including a notice of your dispute. In addition, once you have notified the source of the error in writing, it may not continue to report the information if it is, in fact, an error.
- Outdated information may not be reported. In most cases, a CRA may not report negative information that is more than seven years old; ten for bankruptcies.
- Access to your file is limited. A CRA may provide information about you only to people with a need recognized by the FCRA – usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business.
- Your consent is required for reports that are provided to employers, or reports that contain medical information. A CRA may not give out information about you to your employer, or prospective employer, without your written consent. A CRA may not report medical information about you to creditors, insurers, or employers without your permission.
- You may choose to exclude your name from CRA lists for the unsolicited credit and insurance offers. Creditors and insurers may use file information as the basis for sending you unsolicited offers of credit or insurance. Such offers must include a toll free number for you to call if you want your name and address removed from future lists. If you call, you must be kept off the lists for two years. If you request, complete, and return the CRA form provided for this purpose, you must be taken off the lists indefinitely.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a CRA, a user or (in some cases) a provider of CRA data, violates the FCRA, you may sue them in state or federal court.
